RECOGNITION OF GUEST(S)

Marissa Benschoter-Euler- Hylant (Ohio Plan): She presented Council with a handout for property insurance. There were no changes. The price went up 1.7% for inflation. She went over the items and coverage included. The premium is $17,542 which is down from last year.

Michelle Lahman- Bradner UMC: They are having their Unity in the Community Block Party soon. They'd like to borrow the road barricades to block the parking lot and also block part of East St. She also invited the Police and Fire Dept.'s to attend. She also mentioned the Family Fun Night on July 27th.

Ray Zaker made a motion to block East St. by the parking lot of Bradner UMC. Tammy Kreais 2nd.

Roll Call:

The mulch will be done by Bradner.

Denny has been doing a super job at the park.

Tammy applauded Chuck for his work downtown.

POLICE CHIEF – Chuck Broshious

3 officers are possibly leaving, 2 paid and 1 auxiliary. Officer Mahmoud should be coming back soon from foot surgery but he may also be going to Toledo Public Schools.

Chuck brought up the trucks on residential streets again. The Prosecutor suggests not giving citations until there is a clear ordinance in place. Bradner needs “no thru truck” signs on certain streets. Kerstan will check on a truck ordinance again.

Mayor read a letter from Linda Milligan thanking Officer Yetter for his help on July 5th.

FIRE CHIEF – Tom Wildman

Joe DeLong is a new member of the Fire Dept. His physical and background have been done and he has his Fire card and EMT card already. He has already started running.

The car show is this weekend. The barricades will be at East and Crocker, Crocker and Railroad, Amos and Main and Lightner.

The tanker chassis was delivered.

Tractor Pulls are coming up. Ambulance and Fire Dept. will be there.

Safety Day will be October 12th.

Per Rick Plouck, house numbers need to be displayed on the house itself. He will be going around notifying residents. This is per the Village ordinance and for safety purposes.
